

Freight Broker 101

MODULE 1 QUIZ – Broker Packet Types

FILL IN THE BLANK

1. BOC-3 stands for _____.
2. UCR stands for _____.
3. The requirements to become a freight broker are _____, _____, _____ and _____.
4. The minimum documents needed to get a freight broker set up with a shipper are _____, _____, _____, and _____.
5. _____ is the contract between a freight broker and a potential shipper.
6. _____ is the contract between a freight broker and a potential carrier.

TRUE/FALSE (circle either True or False)

1. True or False. The OP-1 is the application form on the FMCA website where an individual applies to become a freight broker.
2. True or False. Broker/Shipper Agreement is the contract between the freight broker and the motor carrier.
3. True or False. A bond is needed by a freight broker to get setup with a shipper.
4. True or False. A BOC-3 form is one of the required documents needed to become a freight broker.
5. True or False. Broker/Carrier Agreement is the contract between the freight broker and the shipper.

MULTIPLE CHOICE (Circle Correct Answer)

1. What does U.C.R. stands for?
 - a. Uninsured Carrier Review.
 - b. Uniform Carrier Registration.
 - c. Unified Carrier Registration.

2. How much is the bond requirement for a freight broker?
 - a. $10,000.
 - b. $30,000.
 - c. $75,000.

3. Which is NOT one of the other documents needed by freight brokers to get setup with shippers?
 - a. W9
 - b. Rate Con
 - c. MC Authority (Broker License)

4. What is the name of the contract between the shipper and the freight broker?
 - a. Dispatcher Agreement
 - b. Broker/Carrier Agreement
 - c. Broker/Shipper Agreement

5. What is NOT a method of sourcing shippers?
 - a. Cold calling
 - b. Truck Stops
 - c. Visiting Shippers